

Introducing Carmen Sánchez: Programme Officer for Iberoamerica!

Carmen Sánchez Medina first attended training for Business Administration and then graduated in Labour Relations. She still feels a strong bond with her nice small hometown in the province of Córdoba. She has three lovely children.

She's been working at IAHR since December 2008 taking in charge the whole accounts department.

For 12 years she's also had a good professional position in a Consultancy company working as billing manager, looking after the collecting, the accounts and supplier administration. Besides, she cooperated with the Vocational Training Department organizing courses for their clients.

Moreover she's recently taken on the charge of Programme Officer for Iberoamerica. Her wish is to join forces and closely cooperate with this area and promote all the work has been done there.
